Weekly Crime Report for October 18-24, 2010

Case Synopsis

HARASSMENT. Island Realty. 10/21/10. Victims reported receiving a number of harassing emails from a previous customer.

SIMPLE ASSAULT. Morgan Creek Grill. 10/22/10. Officers were dispatched to the Morgan Creek Grill in reference to a fight in progress. Upon arrival, one of the suspects had fled the scene in a Sport Utility Vehicle. The victim advised officers that he was having dinner with friends and family, during which time an unknown white female approached their table and requested that the victim take a photograph of her. Shortly after taking the photo, the female's boyfriend approached the victim in a hostile manner and inquired as to why he (the victim) was taking his girlfriend's picture. A physical altercation ensued.

PETIT LARCENY/THEFT FROM MOTOR VEHICLE. 41st Avenue. 10/23/10. Victim reported that unknown person(s) entered onto his boat, which was docked at the Isle of Palms Marina, and forced entry into the cabin portion of the same. Thereafter, the person(s) took and carried away a pair of binoculars valued at $900.00.
