

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for May 9 – May 15, 2011

Case Synopsis

Monday, May 9

Officers were dispatched to a verbal dispute in progress. Prior to arrival, the two subjects engrossed in the argument left the residence. Shortly thereafter, Officers located the subject vehicle and made contact with the two occupants. The driver of the vehicle advised Officers that he did not have a driver's license and provided false information to the Officers, when providing his name and date of birth, on at least four occasions. The passenger provided the driver's correct information, at which time it was learned that the driver had an active, outstanding warrant out of the North Charleston Police Department. The driver was placed under arrest and transported to the Detention Center.

Wednesday, May 11

Officers met with the victim who reported that on or about 04/28/11, several individuals entered into his unlocked vehicle and stole a pair of sunglasses.

The victim reported to Officers that unknown person(s) entered onto his property and stole a bicycle from the front yard of his residence.

Friday, May 13

The victim reported that she received a number of telephone calls from an unknown individual identifying himself as a Food and Drug Administration (FDA) Agent. The perpetrator accused the victim of illegal drug possession and arrest unless she paid an instant fine of $1,300. The victim contacted the FDA, at which time she was advised that the telephone calls were not from their agency.

Saturday, May 14

An unknown subject entered an Ocean Boulevard residence through an unsecured front door and removed the keys to the victim's SUV, which was parked in the driveway of the residence. Thereafter, the subject stole the vehicle. The vehicle was involved in an accident on Rivers Avenue in North Charleston after attempting to flee law enforcement officers. The perpetrator was transported to the Medical University of South Carolina (MUSC) to be treated for his injuries. The subject has pending Isle of Palms Police Department warrants for Burglary and Grand Larceny of a Motor Vehicle, in addition to a number of Charleston County Sheriff's Office charges. The subject will be taken into custody upon his release from MUSC.

Sunday, May 15

At approximately 2:12 am, Officers responded to the 200 block of Charleston Boulevard in reference to an assault that had just occurred. Upon arrival, Officers made contact with the victim and a taxi driver. The cab driver advised Officers that she had picked up two males from Market Street, downtown Charleston, both of whom requested to be transported to the Isle of Palms. The victim and the perpetrator did not know each other but decided to share the fare to the island. While en route to the Isle of Palms, a verbal altercation occurred between the victim and an unknown white male. The unknown white male struck the victim in the mouth, with a closed fist, and fled the scene on foot.
