

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for May 23 – May 29, 2011

Case Synopsis

May 23: Monday

The victim reported that sometime between 04/24/11 and 05/08/11, unknown persons stole an antique sugar and creamer set from within her residence. This case has been assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division.

May 24: Tuesday

An Officer conducting foot patrol in the Front Beach area observed a male subject who appeared to be under the age of 21 consuming an alcoholic beverage. Identification presented to the Officer confirmed the subject was underage. Consequently, the subject was charged with Minor in Possession of Alcohol and No Alcohol on Streets.

May 25: Wednesday

At approximately 10:11 p. m., while conducting route patrol in the 1100 block of Ocean Boulevard, an Officer observed a white female yelling at vehicles in an attempt to get someone to stop so that she could ask for a ride to her residence in Mount Pleasant. A National Crime Information Center (NCIC) and South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicles (SCDMV) check of her information revealed three active bench warrants, all for Failure to Pay a Traffic Fine. The female subject was taken into custody and charged accordingly.

May 26: Thursday

An Officer was dispatched to the 2200 block of Palm Boulevard in reference to vandalism of a vehicle. The victim advised the Officer that unknown person(s) had written profanity on the passenger side door window, using shoe polish. Further, the victim informed the Officer of an on-going dispute between her teenaged daughter and a classmate; however, the victim could not be certain that the classmate was the perpetrator of this incident.

At approximately 11:28 p. m., Officers were dispatched to a residence on 20th Avenue in reference to a physical altercation in progress. Upon arrival on scene, Officers met with a female subject who stated that she and her boyfriend had engaged in a verbal argument that escalated into a physical altercation. The male subject had fled the scene on foot prior to the arrival of responding Officers and was never located. The female stated that she did not wish to pursue charges nor did she require medical treatment. She was advised by an Officer that the homeowners no longer wanted her on the property, at which time she departed the scene.

May 28: Saturday

Officers conducting foot patrol of the Front Beach area observed two white male subjects sleeping on benches, both of whom were intoxicated. One of the subjects became irate when awakened and the second subject was unable to provide any information to the Officers. Both were placed under arrest and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

A guest of Oceanside Villas reported that unknown person(s) stole two bicycles, which the victim had stored on the walkway.
