Weekly Crime Report for June 20-26, 2011

Case Synopsis

June 20: Monday

An officer on patrol observed a vehicle make an illegal turn out of a business parking lot and initiated a traffic stop. A check of one of the passenger's identification revealed an unpaid traffic ticket. The subject was cited and released.

A male victim reported the theft and subsequent use of his bank debit card. Investigators have developed leads and identified a suspect.

An officer working off-duty at a local resort was approached by two underage males, consuming alcohol, who asked the officer for assistance. When it was determined they were both 20 years of age, each was cited and released for underage possession.

June 21: Tuesday

A male resident reported the theft of prescription medication from his residence. The victim named a potential suspect but insisted he did not want to pursue charges. However, he needed the report to present to the pharmacy for proof of the loss.

A victim reported the theft of a camera and flashlight from his vehicle overnight. It is unknown if the vehicle was secured. Investigation continues.

June 22: Wednesday

A local resident reported a "craigslist scam," in which he was contacted regarding an item he listed for sale. The potential buyer sent a check for an amount above the sale price and requested that the resident send the remainder back to the buyer, via wire transfer. The victim recognized this as a common scam and submitted all correspondence to the reporting officer. Investigators are working on the case.

June 23: Thursday

An officer on patrol stopped a vehicle for speeding and determined the 18-year-old driver was in possession of a beer and liquor, some of which was opened. The female was charged with underage possession, open container and the moving violation, and she was lodged at the detention center.

A victim reported the theft of a small amount of change and a gift card from his vehicle overnight. The victim did not wish to pursue charges.

A victim reported the theft of cash and a credit card from her unlocked vehicle overnight. Investigators are working on the case.

A vehicle was stopped for speeding, and the driver was found to be in possession of a quantity of marijuana. He was charged with the drug offense and transported to the detention center.

A victim reported the theft of a radar detector, a GPS unit, sunglasses, and DVDs from his unlocked vehicle overnight. The investigation is continuing.

June 24: Friday

An officer on patrol stopped a vehicle for a traffic offense and was suspicious of the driver being under the influence of alcohol. The driver refused all field sobriety and chemical tests and was arrested for DUI and lodged at the detention center.

June 26: Sunday

A victim reported the theft of her bicycle outside a local business while she was working. Investigation continues.

A witness reported seeing a male subject remove a GPS unit from an unsecured vehicle in the parking lot of a local business. The witness followed the suspect's vehicle, and officers were able to locate the vehicle and conduct a traffic stop. The driver was subsequently charged with Driving Under Suspension and Open Container, while 2 passengers were charged with the break-in. The GPS unit was returned to the victim.
