

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for July 18-24, 2011

Case Synopsis

July 18: Monday

A resident reported a burglary to her home, during which electronics and various other items were taken. A suspect was named and taken into custody the following day.

A property owner reported receiving a large sum of money for a rental payment which was made with counterfeit traveler's checks. The investigation is continuing.

An officer working off-duty at a local resort located three underage subjects (1 adult and 2 juveniles) consuming alcoholic beverages. The adult male was also found to be in possession of a false driver's license. The juveniles were charged and released to parents and the adult was charged and released to the Charleston County Detention Center.

July 19: Tuesday

A visitor reported the theft of her purse, with a checkbook and credit cards inside, from her rental unit. The case has been forwarded to an investigator.

While investigating a single-vehicle collision, officers discovered an open bottle of liquor in the car. The owner/operator was cited and released on an open container charge.

July 20: Wednesday

A resident reported the theft of a quantity of expensive jewelry from his home, possibly taken by a recent house guest. The case remains open.

A resident reported the theft of prescription pills from his residence and named a friend of his grandson as a potential suspect. The victim wishes to prosecute if the subject is found.

July 21: Thursday

A long-term renter reported a burglary to his home, presumably by a local juvenile. The investigation is continuing.

July 22: Friday

A female subject was cited and released for a violation of the ordinance prohibiting alcohol on the streets, after being found consuming a liquor drink in front of a local establishment.

July 23: Saturday

A female subject was taken into custody and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center for a violation of the ordinance prohibiting alcohol on the streets, after being found consuming beer in front of a local establishment.
