

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for September 5-11, 2011

Case Synopsis

September 5: Monday

Officers responded to an incident of Criminal Domestic Violence. The victim reported that she and her husband were engaged in a verbal argument that escalated into a physical altercation when he pushed her. The male subject was taken into custody and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

A victim reported that unknown person(s) had deliberately punctured a tire on his vehicle while it was parked in the drive of his residence.

A victim reported that unknown person(s) took and carried away his or her property while he or she was visiting the beach.

September 9: Friday

A 17-year-old male attempted to purchase alcoholic beverages with a fake I. D. at a local business. The cashier, realizing the identification card was fake, contacted the Police Department. The subject was apprehended and charged accordingly.

September 10: Saturday

An Officer conducted a traffic stop for a vehicle equipment violation. A check of the driver's license produced information that the license was suspended for numerous failure-to-appear-in-court charges. The driver was placed under arrest. A search of his person, incident to arrest, further produced a quantity of marijuana.

September 11: Sunday

The victims reported that while on the pier, they were approached by a group of individuals, several of whom assaulted the two victims. One of the subjects, described as being a black male, approximately 18 years of age, removed an iPod, a wallet, and a cellular telephone from the pockets of one of the victims before fleeing the scene with three to four other suspects. Evidence was located and collected in close proximity to the incident location. Investigators are pursuing leads at this time.

Officers met with a male subject in reference to the theft of his company vehicle. The victim reported that the previous night, he had parked his vehicle on Ocean Boulevard and to go to the Windjammer. While at the establishment, the victim stated he consumed alcoholic beverages and met a couple of male subjects. At the end of the evening, male subjects drove the victim to his residence. On the morning of the report date, the victim advised Officers that he took a taxi cab back to Ocean Boulevard to retrieve his vehicle and discovered that his vehicle had been stolen, along with the keys. Upon investigation, it was discovered that the vehicle had been involved in a collision in the area of I-26 and Remount Road. The South Carolina Highway Patrol investigated the collision and reported that no one was with the vehicle at the time of their arrival. Further, a number of valuable items belonging to the victim were still present in the vehicle. The case has been assigned to an Investigator.
