

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for September 12 – September 18, 2011

Case Synopsis

September 12: Monday

Officers responded to a residence in reference to a disturbance, more specifically, a female yelling for help. Upon arrival, contact was made a female subject who reported that a verbal altercation with her husband escalated into a physical assault. During the physical assault, according to the victim, her husband refused to allow her to leave the residence, destroyed her mobile telephone, and pushed her to the floor where he strangled her to the point of unconsciousness 6-7 times. Officers were unable to make contact with the male subject. The female was transported to the Isle of Palms Public Safety Building to await transportation to a safe haven. An arrest warrant was obtained for the male subject, who was subsequently taken into custody.

The victim reported that unknown person(s) had utilized his credit card number to make a substantial number of fraudulent purchases. Investigators are following up with the financial institution to obtain further information regarding the purchases.

September 15: Thursday

A rental property manager reported that a comforter was stolen from a rental property. The case has been assigned to an Investigator.

September 17: Saturday

Officers responded to the Front Beach area in reference to a fight in progress. Upon arrival, Officers made contact with the victim who stated that the perpetrators had fled the scene on foot. A search of the area produced the perpetrators. While interviewing all intoxicated parties involved in the physical altercation, the victim advised Officers that he would respond to the Police Department at a later date should he decide to pursue charges.

September 18: Sunday

The victim reported that unknown person(s) had entered onto his property and damaged his flags, which were hanging from his house, by cutting the ropes used to secure the flags.
