

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for January 2 – January 8, 2012

Case Synopsis

January 4: Wednesday

While on route patrol in the 100 block of Palm Boulevard, an Officer observed a vehicle that appeared to be traveling at a speed higher than the posted 35 mph. After confirming a speeding violation, the Officer conducted a traffic stop upon the vehicle. During interview with the operator of the vehicle, it was learned that the insurance had expired. The driver/owner was charged accordingly.

An Officer traveling outbound on the Isle of Palms Connector observed the vehicle traveling in front of him swerve outside of the distinguished lane of travel numerous times. A check of the license plate through the South Carolina Department of Motor Vehicle (SCDMV) database produced information that the owner of the vehicle's driver's license was suspended for failure to maintain insurance on the vehicle. After a traffic stop was conducted and an interview was conducted with the operator, the same was placed under arrest for Driving Under Suspension.

January 5: Thursday

Officers responded to the area of the Sea Cabins in reference to a complaint of a suspicious person. Upon arrival, Officers located the subject and identified him as a subject that had been evicted from the Sea Cabins; however, he had returned in an attempt to retrieve some of his belongings. Further, information was obtained from the National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database that the subject had outstanding warrants from the Mount Pleasant Police Department (MPPD) and the Greenwood County Sheriff's Office. The subject advised on-scene Officers that he recently experienced heart surgery and was not feeling well. First Responders from the Isle of Palms Fire Department (IOPFD) were dispatched to the scene. The subject was, subsequently, transported to Roper Hospital and turned over to the MPPD.

January 6: Friday

An Officer was dispatched to the Ocean Club Villas, on Ocean Boulevard, in reference to a larceny. The victim reported that unknown person(s) had stolen some of her children's toys from the front, common vestibule area of the first floor units.

January 7: Saturday

An Officer conducting route patrol of the Breach Inlet area observed a vehicle that appeared to be traveling at a higher rate of speed than the posted 35 mph. The Officer confirmed the speeding violation via in-car radar. A check of the operator's information through the SCDMV conceived that the driver's license was suspended. The subject was charged accordingly.
