

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for January 16 – January 22, 2012

Case Synopsis

January 16: Monday

A victim reported that unknown person(s) vandalized her 31st Avenue residential mailbox by throwing a brick into it.

January 17: Tuesday

An Investigator met with a victim who had reported to the Public Safety building in reference to on-going acts of intimidation. The victim advised the Investigator that she and her husband are actively going through a divorce as a result of his infidelity. According to the victim, the female subject that her husband was allegedly having an affair with continuously sends her (the victim) unwanted text messages. Further, on the report date, the victim's juvenile son found a Valentine's Day decorated box with obscenities written on the top of the box. The box had been left in the front yard of their Waterway Boulevard residence. The Investigator contacted the suspect's attorney and assisted the victim in petitioning the court for a Restraining Order.

An Officer responded to Dunecrest Lane in reference to a Grand Larceny. The victim reported that unknown person(s) entered onto her open rear deck and stole a bronze pelican statue.

An Officer conducting route patrol in the 700 block of Palm Boulevard observed a vehicle traveling on Palm Boulevard with a non-functioning headlamp. After conducting a lawful traffic stop, the operator of the vehicle was found in further violation for not having a driver's license. The same was placed under arrest and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

January 20: Friday

An employee of the Kangaroo Express reported that unknown person(s) stole his bicycle, which he had parked in the rear of the business.

Officers responded to the Sea Cabins in reference to a Burglary. Upon arriving on scene, the Officers met with the owner who reported that two flat screened televisions had been stolen from within the unit. The victim further advised that the unit is a rental managed through Island Realty.

An Officer traveling inbound on the Isle of Palms Connector observed the vehicle traveling in front of her with a non-functioning brake lamp. After conducting a traffic stop on the vehicle, the Officer obtained information from Telecommunications that the operator of the vehicle did not have a current driver's license. The operator was placed under arrest and transported to the Charleston County Detention Facility.
