

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for January 23 – January 29, 2012

Case Synopsis

January 23: Monday

An Officer responded to the Sea Cabins, on two separate occasions on the same date, in reference to two incidents of burglary. Electronics, specifically televisions, were stolen. The cases were assigned to the Criminal Investigations Division. During the investigation, a lead and suspect developed. Additionally, it was discovered that a third, unoccupied rental unit at the Sea Cabins had been burglarized. Search warrants were obtained for the suspect's residence, incidentally, also at the Sea Cabins. During the execution of the search warrant, the rental agent advised Investigators that the television that was in the suspect's unit was missing and a second television had been damaged. Subsequently, arrest warrants were prepared.

January 26: Thursday

An Officer conducted a traffic stop on a vehicle for an equipment violation. While speaking with the driver, the Officer observed a female occupying the passenger seat, slumped over. The driver advised the Officer that he was driving the female subject to her 30th Avenue residence as a favor for a friend of his and that he does not know the female. The Officer attempted to wake the female, however, she did not respond. The Isle of Palms Fire Department First Responders was summoned to the scene. The female subject was, consequently, transported to the hospital by Charleston County EMS.

An Officer responded to Dunecrest Lane in reference to a grand larceny. The victim reported that unknown person(s) entered onto her property and stole a blue heron lawn ornament.

January 28: Saturday

Officers were dispatched to the Kangaroo Express convenience store in reference to a shoplifting in progress. While en route, the clerk advised dispatch that the subject had shoplifted several items and fled the business on foot. Officers located the subject, as well as the stolen items, as described by the complainant. While speaking with the subject, it was determined that he was under the influence of alcohol. The subject was placed under arrest and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.
