Case Synopsis

February 20: Monday

An officer met with a victim at the Isle of Palms Marina in reference to the theft of a boat battery.

A second theft from a boat was reported at the Marina on this same date. The victim reported that unknown person(s) entered onto his watercraft and stole a cooler.

February 22: Wednesday

An officer met with a victim at her rental property in the 5200 block of Palm Boulevard. The owner/victim reported that her property is managed by Resort Quest and that a flag was missing from her front porch.

February 25: Saturday

Officers responded to a residence on 21st Avenue in reference to a call regarding a domestic dispute. While en route to the residence, dispatch advised responding officers that the male half of the dispute had left the scene. Upon arrival, officers made contact with a female subject, who appeared to be under the influence of alcoholic beverage and upset. The female reported that she and her boyfriend had engaged in a verbal altercation that never escalated to physical violence; and that her sister was coming to the residence to stay with her for the remainder of the evening.

During the week, there were four traffic related arrests. On 02/22/12, while conducting routine patrol of the Isle of Palms Connector, an officer observed a vehicle with in-operable license plate lamps. After conducting a traffic stop and identifying the driver, dispatch provided information that the subject had two active warrants out of an agency in Florida, five additional bench warrants for failure to appear in court for worthless check charges, and a suspended driver's license failure to pay a traffic ticket. The Florida agency refused extradition; however, the subject was placed under arrest for driving under suspension and failure to pay a traffic fine. A pre-tow inventory of the vehicle produced a quantity of a green, plant-like material which field tested presumptive positive for Tetrahydrocannabinol (THC), the active ingredient found in marijuana. The subject was, subsequently, the subject was transported to the Al Cannon Detention Facility.
