

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for March 5 – March 11, 2012

Case Synopsis

March 5: Monday

An officer conducting routine patrol in the vicinity of J.C. Long and Palm Boulevard witnessed a driver operating a vehicle in an erratic manner. Upon initiating a traffic stop and during the subsequent preliminary investigation, it was revealed that the driver was under the influence of alcohol. Following the arrest, the subject was transported to the J. Al Cannon Jr. Detention Center and lodged for DUI.

March 6: Tuesday

Officers responded to a Front Beach business in reference to a complaint of an intoxicated subject. Upon arrival, the subject was attempting to re-enter the business from which he had just been ejected. The subject actively resisted arrest, however, was eventually detained and transported to the J. Al Cannon Jr. Detention Center. The subject was charged with Public Intoxication and Resisting Arrest.

During a traffic stop for reckless driving, open containers of alcoholic beverages were observed in the passenger compartment of the vehicle. The Officer requested identification for the three occupants to be checked through dispatch. The National Crime Information Center (NCIC) database produced information that one of the passengers had an outstanding arrest warrant out of the Mount Pleasant Police Department.

March 8: Thursday

A traffic stop for a seatbelt violation revealed that the operator's driver's license was under suspension for an unpaid traffic citation. The subject was charged accordingly.

March 9: Friday

During a traffic stop for reckless driving, the operator of the suspect vehicle displayed physiological indicators of alcohol and/or drug impairment. A subsequent interview revealed that the driver suffered from a medical condition, the symptoms of which mimicked impairment. The driver was transported to East Cooper Medical Center for treatment.
