

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for April 2 – April 8, 2012

Case Synopsis

April 4: Wednesday

Officers were dispatched to the boardwalk behind the Grand Pavilion in reference to a group of individuals who appeared to be under the age of 21, consuming alcoholic beverages. When Officers arrived on scene and approached the crowd, all of the subjects fled on foot. One of the subjects was detained; however, he did not display any indications that he had consumed any alcoholic beverage. The subject was released to his guardian.

April 5: Thursday

An employee of the Grand Pavilion Bar and Restaurant reported that a white male subject, approximately 60 years of age, took and carried away a bottle of Grey Goose vodka from the business. The larceny was captured on surveillance and during review of the video another business employee was able to positively identify the perpetrator.

April 6: Friday

Officers were dispatched to the area of the Grand Pavilion in reference to a loud party. Upon arrival, a number of juvenile subjects fled the scene on foot. One white male subject was detained and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

Officers responded to a 41st Avenue residence in reference to a dispute. While speaking with the male and female subjects, it was determined that they are roommates wherein the female pays rent to the male subject. According to the male subject, the female roommate had not paid her rent and wanted her to leave the premises. The eviction process was explained to both individuals, with the female agreeing to depart the residence for the evening.

While conducting route foot patrol in the area of the Grand Pavilion, Officers detected the smell of burning marijuana emitting from the covered bar at the end of the boardwalk on the beach. As Officers approached the boardwalk, two white male subjects fled the scene on foot. After a foot pursuit, one of the subjects was detained and charged accordingly.

April 7: Saturday

An Officer conducting route patrol of the Front Beach area was approached by a female subject advising that an unknown white male subject was at her J. C. Long Boulevard residence, banging on her door. Officers made contact with the subject who was determined to be highly intoxicated. The subject was placed under arrest and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center.

April 8: Sunday

Officers were dispatched to Seascapes in reference to an aggravated assault. Upon arrival, the Officers met with the victim who reported that a female subject, operating a red-in-color, Ford-make passenger car struck him with her vehicle after an incident of road rage that started in the 2100 block of Palm Boulevard and continued to Seascapes. The female subject followed the victim to Seascapes where she continued to harass him, eventually striking him with a side mirror of her vehicle as she fled the scene.
