

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for January 27 – February 2, 2014

Case Synopsis

January 28: Tuesday

Harassing Telephone Calls: Palm Boulevard. An employee of a local business reported that an unknown female subject has called the business numerous times over the course of several days creating a nuisance and interrupting business. The caller alleges that one of the female employees of the business has been having an affair with her husband and keeps calling to obtain information on the female employees, to include what time they leave the business after closing.

January 29: Wednesday

Petit Larceny: Grand Pavilion Boulevard. The victim reported that unknown person(s) stole a necklace from her room while staying at the hotel. She stated that she last saw the jewelry when she was packing on the evening of 01/26/14 and noticed it missing at approximately 7:30 a.m. on 01/29/14.

Service Calls

Time of Day with most activity: 8:00 – 9:00 p.m.

Number of Incident Reports: 17

Day of Week with the most activity: Thursday

Number of Services: 123

Number of Calls for Service: 522

Number of Arrests: 7