

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for April 14 – April 20, 2014

Case Synopsis

April 16: Wednesday

Attempted Burglary: Grand Pavilion. The complainant reported that she was closing up the outdoor bar but left the area for 10-15 minutes. When she returned, she discovered that unknown subject(s) had activated the alarm system by apparently prying open one of the doors to the bar. No items taken. Cosmetic damage only to the door.

April 18: Friday

Criminal Sexual Conduct: J C Long Blvd. Officers responded to the area in reference to a sexual assault that had just occurred. The victim stated she had nonconsensual sex with a male subject she had met earlier in the night. The investigation is ongoing.

Simple Assault: Harbor Golf Course. The juvenile victim reported that a male subject struck him with a golf club. The juvenile and his friends were riding their bicycles on the cart path when the victim was struck.

Burglary: Grand Pavilion. The victim reported unknown subject(s) removed five beach chairs from the enclosed garage at the residence (value $160).

April 19: Saturday

Harassment: Carolina Blvd. The victim reported he has received threatening text messages from an acquaintance.

April 20: Sunday

Petit Larceny: Grand Pavilion. The victim reported that unknown subject(s) removed 63 Oxycodone pills from his prescription bottle along with $100 from the petty cash drawer in an office at the location.

Vandalism: Twin Oaks Lane. The victim stated she returned home after being gone for nine days and discovered that unknown subject(s) had forced open the front door to the residence, heavily damaging the door and frame. Everything inside the home seemed in place with nothing reported missing by the victim. Damage to the door estimated at $500.
