

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for May 19 – May 25, 2014

Case Synopsis

May 20: Tuesday

Vandalism: Palm Blvd. The complainant reported he discovered his rear sliding glass door to his outside shed was broken by unknown means (Total value $1000). Two weeks earlier the same victim reported their rear glass door to the residence had been broken, possibly by a BB or pellet.

May 21: Wednesday

Petit Larceny: Front Beach. The complainant reported additional tools were stolen from a locked construction site tool bin with no forced entry (Total value $1000). The tools were found to have been sold at a local pawn shop and were returned to the owner. A suspect has been developed and an arrest is expected in this case. This larceny is related to the one reported on May 16th.

May 25: Sunday

Burglary / Grand Larceny: Front Beach. Officers observed a moped driving recklessly on the sidewalk and arrested the driver. A subsequent investigation revealed the driver had just stolen the moped from a storage area beneath a nearby business, and he was charged accordingly.
