

Isle of Palms Police Department
Weekly Crime Report for January 5 – January 11, 2015

Case Synopsis

January 6: Tuesday

Grand Larceny: 1300 block of Ocean Boulevard. The complainant reported his Cannondale bicycle stolen after unknown subject(s) cut the lock from the bike rack. Value of the bicycle $2,200.

January 10: Saturday

Fraud: Pelican Reach. The complainant stated a company scammed her into giving her credit card information over the phone and charged $149 to make unneeded repairs to her computer.

January 11: Sunday

Petit Larceny: 24th Avenue. Three complainants stated they were missing items to include cash, a wallet, a purse and a cellphone while attending a function. Total value of items missing $1,547.

Service Calls

Time of Day with most activity: 7:00 – 8:00 a.m.

Number of Incident Reports: 21

Day of Week with the most activity: Wednesday

Number of Services: 1,235

Number of Calls for Service: 70

Number of Arrests: 6