Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for APRIL 2009

Date: MAY 5, 2009

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of April 2009.

Patrol

April 1, 2009 Investigators arranged for two male subjects that had outstanding Arrest Warrants to turn themselves in this date. Both arrived at headquarters and were each served with Breach of Trust with Fraudulent Intent (less than $1,000) warrants and were processed and transported to the Charleston County Detention Center. The warrants are the result of an investigation into the illegal use of a home on Cameron Boulevard that they were entrusted with to complete repairs.

April 3, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on Palm Boulevard, where a passerby reported hearing a woman yelling for help. The officers spoke to a witness who stated that there was an intoxicated and irate male subject inside punching holes in walls and assaulting people. The witness identified the subject by name and stated that he had just exited the rear door. The subject was immediately located and detained. It was determined that the subject had assaulted his girlfriend, she was uncooperative and did not want him charged, but two houseguests were also assaulted and provided written statements. The officers witnessed a large fist size hole in one wall and three holes in three different doors. The subject was arrested and charged with Simple Assault 2 counts, and Malicious Damage to Real Property, and transported to the Detention Center.

April 5, 2009 A female subject who had spent the weekend on the Isle of Palms while attending the Bridge Run returned to her home in Charlotte, North Carolina and reported to the Charlotte-Mecklenburg Police Department that she had been sexually assaulted while at the Isle of Palms. She reported that she knew the first name of the suspect, but no other information. Arrangements were made for a written statement to be taken, which was immediately faxed to the Isle of Palms. An Isle of Palms officer spoke to the victim and gained as much information as possible. An Investigator was assigned to this case, and was able to positively identify the male subject. The alleged victim then decided not to pursue charging the subject.

April 7, 2009 A local liquor store reported that a male juvenile had attempted to purchase liquor with an altered identification card. An officer observed the subject hiding behind a nearby business and when the officer approached the subject ran into a wooded area. The subject ran through yards and made his way to the Recreation Center then into, and through yards again. The subject's father met with an officer at the liquor store, and was less than cooperative, but he eventually made telephone contact with the suspect and his friend who had been in a vehicle to pick the suspect up after the purchase had been made. Both subjects were charged with Purchasing Alcohol with False ID. The subject that entered the store and ran was also charged with Hindering and Resisting Arrest. It was determined that the subject's were visiting Wild Dunes with their families.

April 8, 2009 Just before 11:30 P.M., officers responded to a Cameron Boulevard residence, where a loud party had been reported. The officers immediately observed beer bottles and drink cups strewn around the outside of the residence and a large number of male and female subjects at the residence, who appeared to be teenagers. Located in the residence were twenty-three subjects, two over the age of twenty-one, two juveniles, and nineteen between seventeen and twenty years old. It was discovered that a male subject had jumped from a second story porch to avoid detection by the police and as a result sustained a broken jaw and hand. Two adult subjects were charged with Transfer of Beer/Liquor to a Minor, and Violation of the Noise Ordinance. The two juveniles were charged with Underage Possession of Beer and Liquor to be tried in Family Court. The remaining subjects were charged with varying charges of Possession of False ID to Underage Possession of Beer, and Underage Possession of Liquor. All of the beer and liquor found in the residence was confiscated, photographed and destroyed. A representative of the rental company responded and advised that all subjects present were to be out of the residence by 10 A.M. the following morning and damaged items would be charged to the credit card of the person who is listed on the rental agreement.

April 9, 2009 Officers responded to a Hartnett Boulevard residence regarding a reported disturbance between brother and sister at that location. While investigating it was discovered that the male subject had an outstanding Arrest Warrant through the Rhea County Tennessee Sheriff's Department. A teletype from that agency indicated that they would not extradite. The disturbance was resolved for the evening with the brother indicating that he would move out of the residence.

April 10, 2009 Officers were alerted by several 911 calls that an aircraft was flying very low, southbound over the beach. The Department of Natural Resources aircraft was having fuel problems and was forced to land on the beach near 32nd Avenue. The area around the aircraft was cleared for safety reasons and approximately three hours later the problem was repaired. Police, fire and DNR personnel cleared a one- mile stretch of beach and a successful takeoff was accomplished without further incident.

April 10, 2009 Two male juvenile subjects entered a local liquor store and shoplifted a mini keg of beer then ran to a wooded area near the Connector. The subject was instructed to leave the area several times and was taken into custody when he refused to do so and charged with Hindering.

April 12, 2009 At approximately 1:30 A.M., officers responded to the beach behind The Seaside Inn where loud noise had been reported. Officers encountered one male and three female subjects, and made the determination that a couple in the group was in the process of a heated argument, which continued in the officer's presence. All four subjects were charged with No Alcohol on the Beach, two subjects with Disorderly Conduct and one with 3 counts of NRVC, for unpaid traffic tickets.

The driver was determined to be a disoriented elderly male from Mount Pleasant who has been escorted home on other occasions. Due to this re-occurrence a request for driver reexamination to the highway department was submitted.

April 16, 2009 Just before midnight, officers responded to the 3600 block of Palm Boulevard on the beach, where a citizen had reported fireworks being shot off. He was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication.

April 17, 2009 At approximately 2:30 A.M., officers responded to a residence on 42nd Avenue and were met by a complainant who stated that a group on the porch of a nearby residence had been playing loud music and using loud profanities heard throughout the block. As officers approached the residence, several subjects on the porch dropped their drinks and ran into the residence. The officers then observed a beer keg on tap on the porch, and attempted to make contact with the person responsible for the rental. The officers noted that almost everyone present appeared to be under the age of 21, and noted a substantial amount of alcoholic beverages present. A nineteen year- old male subject stated that his parents rented the home for him. Present in the home was a 50 year- old female subject, who along with two 21 year olds were charged with Transfer of Beer to Minors. The officer then observed another male subject in a jeep waiting to back down the boat ramp to load a boat onto a trailer. The officer spoke to the driver of the jeep, who had very slurred speech who stated that he was waiting for the officer to leave first. The officer had the driver of the jeep exit the vehicle and determined that he was impaired. The driver admitted that he had consumed 6-7 beers. The male subject that had been in the disabled vehicle then approached when it was determined that he too was under the influence of alcohol. Both subject were taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication. It was later determined that the jeep had been involved in a hit and run accident in Mount Pleasant prior to the initial contact at the boat landing. Fresh damage to the jeep matched what was described, Mount Pleasant Police responded to investigate.
