Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for March, 2014.

Date: April 1, 2014

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of March, 2014.

March 1: Saturday

Simple Assault/Assault on a Police Officer: Conch Court. Officers were dispatched to an assault in progress. Upon arrival, the suspect had fled the scene. The subject was quickly located hiding in bushes surrounding the victim's residence. The subject was placed under arrest. A search of his person, incident to arrest produced a quantity of marijuana, of which he was also charged. The subject was transported to a local medical facility for treatment of the injuries he sustained during the physical altercation. Upon arrival at the hospital, the subject became hostile and physically assaulted an Officer.

March 7: Friday

Theft From Motor Vehicle: Grand Pavilion Boulevard. The complainant reported that unknown person(s) removed a ring from the inside of her vehicle while she was staying in Wild Dunes for the weekend. No forced entry.

March 8: Saturday

Simple Assault: Grand Pavilion Boulevard. The victim reported that he and a cab driver argued over the amount of a fare when the cab driver pulled out a gun and pointed it at him, threatening his life. The gun was recovered by responding officers and determined to be a BB gun. The cab driver was arrested at the scene.

March 9: Sunday

Theft From Motor Vehicle: 1300 block of Ocean Blvd. Victim stated unknown person(s) removed her purse from inside her parked vehicle. The victim's purse contained $104.00 in cash, ID, passport, and a credit card. The victim's vehicle was secured except for the sunroof. No forced entry.

March 10: Monday

Grand Larceny: 1500 block of Palm Boulevard. The complainant reported that a black male with dreadlocks removed $10,000 worth of scrap copper wiring from a construction site. The male suspect left in a burgundy Ford F150 pickup truck.

March 12: Wednesday

Identity Theft: Morgan Place Drive. The victim reported that he discovered a discrepancy on his credit report after receiving a letter from a collection agency for a debt that was not his. Furthermore, the victim stated he received an income tax refund check for this tax year despite the fact he had not yet filed. There was an additional name written on the check.

March 14: Friday

Breach of Trust: 1500 block of Palm Boulevard. Victim stated that the delivery driver for their company sold excess product off his delivery truck for cash and then kept the proceeds.

March 18: Tuesday

Theft From Motor Vehicle: 3600 block of Waterway Boulevard. The victim reported that while she was watching television, she heard a disturbance outside her residence. Upon investigating, she discovered that unknown person(s) had entered into her vehicle and stole a quantity of cash from her wallet, which she had left lying on the center console. The victim also stated that shortly after she exited her residence to investigate the disturbance, she observed a golf cart, occupied by two (2) white male subjects in the area. Officers patrolled the area for the subjects, with negative findings.

March 21: Friday

Trespassing: Ensign Court. Officers responded to the area in reference to a burglary that had just occurred, where a white male subject was seen exiting the vacant residence and fleeing the area on foot. A description of the subject was provided to all responding officers who were able to locate the subject in the area of Waterway Boulevard and Timber Lane. The victim positively identified the subject, who was subsequently placed under arrest. The same subject was the primary suspect in several thefts that occurred in January, 2014. During interview with Investigators, the subject confessed to being on the property without permission, as well as two (2) previously reported thefts.

March 24: Monday

Burglary: 2300 block of Cameron Boulevard. The victim reported that he heard a noise in his kitchen and went to investigate. He then discovered that unknown subject(s) had removed two bottles of wine from the kitchen. Victim further reported seeing an unknown white male subject looking in his window two days prior during early morning hours, after which the victim stated he was missing a bottle of rum.

March 27: Thursday

Narcotics, Alcohol & City Ordinance Violations: 200 block of Ocean Boulevard. An Officer conducting patrol in the 200 block of Ocean Boulevard observed a number of city ordinance violations occurring at a rental property, to include the discharge of fireworks and excessive noise. Subsequent to an investigation of the ordinance violations, 28 individuals were charged with minor in possession of alcohol. A quantity of marijuana was located which resulted in one other individual's arrest. Finally, the responsible party for the rental property was charged with the transfer of beer to minors and hindering.

March 29: Saturday

Simple Assault: Front Beach. Officers responded to the area in reference to an assault that had just occurred. The victim stated he had been pushed by another patron of the business after a brief argument. The victim wished to pursue charges but was unable to locate or pick out the subject who pushed him. The victim neither reported any injuries nor showed any signs of injury.

Petit Larceny: 3000 block of Palm Boulevard. The victim reported that unknown subject(s) removed a glass table top from a table located on her front porch. This incident is likely related to another reported incident where another glass table top was removed from the same front porch and found by the victim shattered in the street on 03/22/14.

Simple Assault: Front Beach. The victim reported he was struck in his head by another male subject while in an argument over a taxi. The victim showed no signs of injury and did not wish to pursue any charges.

Patrol

During the month of March 2014, Officers issued three (3) You Could Have Been the Victim of a Crime notices and sixteen (16) Business Check notices.

Community Service

(New "Coffee with a Cop" Program)

Of the three objectives set for the goal of initiating a "Coffee with a Cop" program, two have been successfully completed.

The first objective was to have personnel assigned to coordinate the program attend training. The goal date set for completion was February 1, 2014. Officers attended a training seminar January 21-22, 2014.

The second objective was for all police department personnel to receive awareness training. The goal date set for completion was February 28, 2014. All personnel had received training by February 27, 2014.

The third and final objective is to hold at least three meetings within the 2014 calendar year. As of this date, the logistics of launching the program and meeting planning is underway. It is anticipated that there will be at least one meeting held in the month of April.
