Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for FEBRUARY 2009

Date: MARCH 6, 2009

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of February 2009.

Patrol

February 1, 2009 Just after 1 A.M., an officer responded to Summer House on Palmetto Boulevard in Wild Dunes where someone had reported an intoxicated subject lying on the ground. The subject was awakened and was unable to respond to any questions regarding where he was staying. He was also found to be in possession of an open bottle of whiskey. Due to the subject's condition and inability to care for himself he was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication.

February 1, 2009 A guest at Summer House reported that someone, described as the intoxicated subject just arrested had kicked their door attempting to make entry, causing several hundred dollars worth of damage to the door frame. Officers were able to determine that the subject that had been arrested was a Citadel cadet, who had been staying with a group on the second floor. Officers were then able to retrieve personal information for the person they had previously arrested.

February 1, 2009 An officer responded to a reported accident between a truck and a parked car on Ocean Boulevard. The officer located the truck, which was parked against a car, with the motor running and windshield wipers activated. The driver of the truck was still inside and appeared to be passed out. The officer awakened the subject, who was asked to stay in the vehicle due to his apparent intoxicated condition. When the subject did exit the vehicle he was unable to stand or balance without assistance, so he was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication.

February 2, 2009 Just before 3 A.M., an officer on patrol of the Connector observed a vehicle cross over the white lane markings several times, then use the wrong lane to turn onto Palm Boulevard from the Connector. Once stopped, the female driver submitted to several Field Sobriety Tests, which she failed. A male passenger was found to be in possession of a glass of alcoholic beverage. He was charged with Open Container and allowed to get someone to pick him up and drive him home. While being transported to the Detention Center, the subject being transported yelled profanities at the officer, and once at the Detention Center, the subject refused to exit the vehicle. After being removed from the vehicle and while walking into the Detention Center, the subject kicked the officer in his shin. Once inside of the Datamaster room, while being monitored by videotape, the subject began twisting the handcuffs around her wrists in order to make marks that she claimed the arresting officer and detention officers inflicted upon her. When the officer moved the handcuff to the front to administer the Datamaster Test, she jerked her wrist and began screaming that she wanted the entire incident on film. During the twenty minute waiting period for the test to be administered, she made several attempts to get up and walk around the room. When the time came to take the test, she refused to participate and was charged with DUI and Assaulting a Police Officer. A Detention Officer provided videotape of the assault from outside surveillance cameras.

February 5, 2009 An officer observed a vehicle that failed to stop at a stop sign entering Palm Boulevard. When the vehicle was stopped the officer made the determination that the driver did not have a valid driver's license. The subject was charged with DUS and NRVC.

February 5, 2009 A resident reported that someone had made numerous unauthorized charges on her bank credit card. Her bank notified her that unusual expenditures were being made. The victim last used her card at a location in Mount Pleasant. The case has been assigned to an Investigator for follow-up.

February 6, 2009 Officers responded to several 911 calls at a residence on 21st Avenue where a domestic dispute had been reported. Upon arrival, the officers made the determination that an intoxicated female present had made several calls to 911, giving her first name. The female complainant, with the same first name denied making any calls, and was taken into custody, charged with 911 Misuse. A male subject present interfered with the arrest and was also taken into custody, and charged with Hindering.

February 8, 2009 An officer on patrol on the Connector observed a speeding vehicle and stopped it on Ocean Boulevard near 14th Avenue. While speaking to the driver the officer immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol, which resulted in a series of Field Sobriety Tests being administered to the driver. After failing those tests, the driver was transported to the Detention Center for a Datamaster Test, where he registered a .13% level of alcohol. He was lodged and charged with DUI.

February 8, 2009 A front beach restaurant reported a belligerent male subject threatening employees. Upon the officer's arrival the subject had already left the premises, but officers were able to obtain a good physical description from witnesses. The subject was located in front of a nearby business and when approached became hostile, loud and boisterous in front of persons walking by. When asked to refrain from using profanities the subject got louder and more disorderly. He was taken into custody and charged with Disorderly Conduct.

February 11, 2009 Just after midnight, an officer on patrol stopped to assist a male subject who appeared to be changing a tire on 10th Avenue near Palm Boulevard. The officer observed the subject to be unsteady on his feet with a strong odor of alcohol emitting from his person. The officer determined that he was intoxicated, and placed him into custody charged with Public Intoxication.

February 11, 2009 Just before 4 A.M., an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle on Palm Boulevard for having an expired license plate. As the officer approached the vehicle, the driver threw a lit cigarette out of the driver's window. The officer then observed an open container of brown liquid in the center console that was found to be liquor. The driver was taken into custody charged with Illegal Consumption of Liquor, Littering and Expired Registration.

February 13, 2009 A vehicle reported stolen from a residence on Carolina Boulevard on January 23rd, was stopped in Los Angeles, California by a Los Angeles County Sheriff's Deputy. At the time four subjects were in the vehicle and one was from Mount Pleasant. Arrests were made in Los Angeles for possession of the stolen vehicle. That same subject was also responsible for at least two Burglaries and thefts on the Isle of Palms. Arrest Warrants were issued for the suspect.

February 13, 2009 Arrangements were made for a female subject wanted by the Isle of Palms Police Department to turn herself in due to three outstanding Arrest Warrants for several incidents that occurred while she was employed by a local convenience store in 2007. The charges were Financial Transaction Card Theft, Financial Transaction Card Fraud, and Breach of Trust. An additional outstanding Arrest Warrant issued by the North Charleston Police Department was located. The subject was lodged in the Detention Center.

February 14, 2009 Just after midnight, officers responded to a Palmetto Drive condominium unit where it was reported that a male subject was attempting to make entry into the complainant's unit. Officers located the subject, who insisted that his parents owned the unit he was attempting to enter. Due to the subject's intoxicated state, he was taken into custody, but refused to get into the back seat of a police vehicle. After numerous commands and warnings to comply, the subject was pepper sprayed, which resulted in compliance. The subject was charged with Public Intoxication and Resisting Arrest.

February 17, 2009 Just after midnight, an officer on patrol stopped a vehicle for a moving violation. While speaking to the driver the officer realized that he had charged the driver in November of 2008 with DUI, which resulted in his license being suspended. The driver presented an altered license to the officer, which resulted in his arrest. He was charged with Failure to Stop before Entering Roadway, DUS for DUI, Obtaining False/Fictitious DL by Fraud, and Possession of Fictitious DL.

February 17, 2009 An officer on patrol observed a vehicle operated in Wild Dunes by a person that he knew had failed to appear in Municipal Court for recent traffic charges. The vehicle was stopped on Twin Oaks Lane and a computer check of the driver indicated that his license was suspended for failure to pay a ticket. He was charged with DUS 2nd offense, and NRVC.

February 18, 2009 A resident of Lagoon Villas in Wild Dunes reported that he loaned his 2001 Ford Mustang to a female acquaintance and the vehicle has not yet been returned. Contact by the police department had been made with the subject via cell phone, where she was advised to return the vehicle immediately to avoid more serious criminal charges. Several days later the vehicle was located abandoned by police in the Charlotte area. The owner refused to press charges against the female subject responsible.

February 21, 2009 A Dorchester County Sheriff's Investigator conducting a rape investigation needed the assistance of a Spanish-speaking officer. Since the only officer available at the time was an Isle of Palms officer, he responded to a North Charleston location to read a Miranda Warning to the suspect and to assist in the service of a Search Warrant.

February 22, 2009 Just after 4 A.M., an officer on patrol observed a vehicle sitting at the intersection of 14th Avenue and Palm Boulevard with the driver slumped over the steering wheel. The officer approached the vehicle and immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol from within the vehicle. The officer made several attempts to awaken the driver and once awakened, the driver had trouble standing without assistance. He was taken into custody and charged with Public Intoxication and Open Container.

February 22, 2009 The Mount Pleasant Police Department duty supervisor requested the assistance of a Spanish-speaking officer to conduct a Datamaster Test on a Hispanic driver that they had in custody suspected of DUI. The officer responded and administered the test then returned to the Isle of Palms.

February 22, 2009 A taxi cab driver reported that a fare that she had transported to the Isle of Palms had fled the taxi in front of a Palm Boulevard residence without paying the $44.00 fare. The male suspect was later located, positively identified by the taxi driver, and charged with Petit Larceny.

February 26, 2009 A resident of Hartnett Boulevard reported that her estranged husband had taken the family vehicle, which contained her employment equipment. An officer made contact with the subject, who agreed to return the items.

February 27, 2009 A concerned citizen reported a reckless driver heading north on Palm Boulevard from Sullivan's Island. A Sullivan's Island police officer observed the vehicle and stopped it on Palm Boulevard while attempting to make a left turn onto the Connector in the opposite lane of travel. An Isle of Palms officer arrived and immediately detected a strong odor of alcohol from within the vehicle and administered several Field Sobriety Tests that the eighteen-year old driver failed. He was then transported to headquarters to be administered a Datamaster Test. After waiting the prescribed twenty-minute observation period the driver refused to provide a sample, and was charged with DUI.

Personnel/Community Relations

February 3, 2009 PFC Chavez received the police departments Employee of the Month Award for his actions last month when he intervened in an incident and prevented a female subject from completing an attempt to commit suicide.

February 10, 2009 Sgt. J. Ryan played the Great Highland Bagpipes at the graveside funeral service of James B. Gosnell Sr., the father of Charleston County Associate Chief Magistrate James B. Gosnell Jr.

February 25, 2009 Two new police officers were hired and began their employment. Ms. Audra Seabrook is an Army veteran and previously employed at the Charleston County Detention Center. The other officer is Mr. Wesley Funsch, a recent graduate of Clemson University. Prior to attending college he was employed as a Beach Services Officer for the Isle of Palms Police Department. Both will attend the South Carolina Criminal Justice Academy beginning on March 8, 2009.

February 28, 2009 For the month of February, officers discovered one business and three homes with open or unsecured doors. A total of fifty-five Victim of Crime Forms were issued to business or property owners for various violations noted, or to advise them that an officer checked their business during the night while on patrol.
