Subj.: MONTHLY REPORT for JULY 2009

Date: AUGUST 5, 2009

The following is a synopsis of some of the activities of the Isle of Palms Police Department during the month of July 2009.

Patrol

July 1, 2009 The homeowner of a Twin Oaks residence reported that he had contracted with a construction company in March of 2008 to do renovations, which amounted to just over $62,000, which he had advanced to the company. To date, only a very small portion of the work has been completed and since the owner lives out of state, he was unable to supervise the work. This case has been turned over to an Investigator.

July 1, 2009 Just after 3 A.M., officers responded to a front beach restaurant where one of the owners of the establishment reported a domestic disturbance. Officers determined that the disturbance was only verbal in nature and one party agreed to return to their residence for the evening.

July 3, 2009 Just before 11 P.M., officers responded to the beach area behind 200 Grand Pavilion Boulevard, where management reported a large group of teenagers consuming alcohol and causing a disturbance. Due to the large volume of persons present versus just three officers, an announcement was made for all subjects to leave the area and to clean up all refuse when doing so. It was determined that many present were local teenagers and some were visitors to the island. The group quickly dispersed without further incident.

July 4, 2009 An officer responded to the beach near 25th Avenue, where a loose dog had reportedly attacked a girl walking her dog. Prior to the police officer's arrival, the owner removed the dog that had been loose on the beach as a result, neither the dog or the owner could be located. The victim sustained some minor scratches.

July 4, 2009 Officers responded to the beach near 14th Avenue, where a domestic dispute had been reported. The officers determined that the argument started when the wife had an argument with an in-law, which escalated when her husband then started arguing with her. The couple was separated and the wife left the area with her two children without further incident.

July 4, 2009 Just prior to the annual fireworks display, an officer assigned to the beach for security observed several subjects enter the beach appearing to be unsteady on their feet as though they were intoxicated and sit down among other spectators present. One of the subjects was then observed sitting down in the sand dunes and began plucking sea oats and knocking down the dune. The officer approached to advise the subject to exit the dunes and to leave the area. The subject became belligerent and began to utter loud profanities in the presence of the public. A second male subject who was with the intoxicated subject then became loud and boisterous causing both to be taken into custody. Both subjects were charged with Public Intoxication and one with the additional charge of Unlawful Destruction of Sea Oats then transported to the Detention Center.

July 4, 2009 While waiting for the annual fireworks display to begin an officer on the beach observed several subjects present in the crowd, who appeared to be in possession of beer. The officer approached to investigate and found all three in possession of beer. One female subject gave the officer a false date of birth to indicate she was over 21. All three subjects were charged with No Alcohol on the Beach, and the female who had provided false information was also charged with Hindering and Minor in Possession of Alcohol.

July 4, 2009 At approximately 9 P.M., an officer responded to a complaint of someone shooting off fireworks illegally on 25th Avenue near Waterway Boulevard. As the officer approached the group he observed a male subject in the street holding a can of open beer and noticed that several other empty cans were on the ground near him. When the subject saw the officer he began to run from the officer who observed him run into a wooded area, then come back out empty handed. The subject's wife then appeared and was advised of what had happened. The subject was given a verbal warning regarding illegal fireworks, but charged with No Alcohol on the Street and NRVC for an unpaid traffic ticket. The couple then agreed to pick up all debris from fireworks and empty beer cans in the area without further incident.

July 4, 2009 Just after 11 P.M., an officer on patrol observed a vehicle turning left onto Carolina Boulevard from 7th Avenue, then fail to negotiate the turn driving onto the lawn of the corner house, barely missing a mailbox and a utility pole. The vehicle was stopped on 8th Avenue near Ocean Boulevard. While the officer was speaking to the driver he noted an odor of alcohol about his person. The driver was then found to be in possession of a quantity of marijuana. The driver was charged with Simple Possession of Marijuana and Reckless Driving and transported to the Detention Center.

July 5, 2009 Officers responded to a Morgan Place Drive residence where a male subject met them in the street to advise that he believed his wife had ingested an overdose of a prescribed medication. His wife was located in a closet upstairs where she was restrained for her safety. Since she refused medical treatment, she was taken into Emergency Protective Custody and transported by EMS personnel to East Cooper Hospital for evaluation.

July 5, 2009 A Mount Pleasant police officer met an Isle of Palms officer at headquarters after he transported a female subject who had a domestic disturbance earlier in the evening while leaving the municipal parking lot here. During the altercation the female victim stated that she was assaulted in the face and head with the fists of her boyfriend. Since the suspect was longer in the area this case has been turned over an Investigator for prosecution. The victim was escorted back to her vehicle in Mount Pleasant. The suspect was located on July 6th and taken into custody charged with Criminal Domestic Violence 2nd offense, where a $5,000 surety bond was placed by a Magistrate.

July 6, 2009 An officer responded to a Morgan Place Drive residence where it was reported that a male subject had fallen down a flight of stairs. Upon the officers arrival several parties met him, where the victim then stated that he had not fallen, but was thrown from a golf cart while on a Harbor Golf Course golf cart path. He stated that he was briefly pinned under the cart, which overturned. He complained that he had some difficulty breathing and agreed to be transported by EMS for observation.

July 6, 2009 Investigators arrested a male subject who was employed by a local rental company regarding a theft of money from a Palmetto Drive rental unit in May and second theft of money from a Grand Pavilion Boulevard rental unit on July 1st. The subject confessed to the thefts and was charged with 2 counts of Petit Larceny.

July 6, 2009 Officers responded to a Lagoon Villas rental unit in Wild Dunes where a domestic family dispute had been reported. The officers quickly determined that the dispute was between a mother and her 19 year- old son and had been only verbal with no evidence of assault.

July 7, 2009 An Investigator positively identified two male subjects responsible for deliberately breaking four entry gates to several areas in Wild Dunes in June. Both were charged with Malicious Damage to Property.

July 10, 2009 After stopping a vehicle on Palm Boulevard and 11th Avenue for a license plate violation the officer, while speaking with the driver, he observed a clear plastic bag of marijuana in his possession. He was taken into custody and charged with Improper Display of License Plate and Simple Possession of Marijuana.

July 11, 2009 An officer on patrol of Palm Boulevard just before 2 A.M., observed a vehicle approach him in the opposite direction doing 66 miles per hour in a 40 mile per hour zone. The officer turned around and stopped the vehicle and while speaking to the driver determined that she had consumed some alcohol. The driver was charged with Reckless Driving and transported to the Detention Center.

July 11, 2009 An officer stopped a vehicle on the Connector for a lane violation and while checking the drivers license determined that his license was suspended. The suspect was identified and appeared while the officer was present. She admitted that she had taken the money and returned it to the officer and was charged with Petit Larceny.

July 12, 2009 Officers responded to the County Park where management reported that a male subject was attempting to instigate a fight with park patrons. The officers located the subject in the parking lot and determined that he was intoxicated and in possession of a quantity of beer in a bag he was carrying. The subject was taken into custody and charged with No Alcohol on Beach and Disorderly Conduct.

July 12, 2009 Officers responded to a front beach establishment after management reported that a patron left their business without paying for a $117 bar tab. An employee of the business located the suspect and detained him until police arrived. The suspect was taken into custody charged with Petit Larceny. A computer check of the suspect revealed that he was wanted by the Chesterfield County, Virginia authorities, but they declined to extradite, due to the distance and the nature if the charge involved.

July 12, 2009 Officers responded to a front beach establishment after an employee reported that a patron who was cutoff by the bartender and asked to leave the premises had assaulted him. The suspect was located and taken into custody charged with Simple Assault.

July 12, 2009 Friends of the previous incidents suspect approached the officer who had his friend in custody and began to cause a loud disturbance on the sidewalk. Dunes in May. Investigators charged him with Burglary 1st degree, Grand Larceny, Breaking & Entering a Motor Vehicle, numerous counts of Financial Transaction Credit Card Theft and numerous counts of Financial Credit Card Fraud. Since a Magistrate can't set a bond for Burglary 1st degree, the suspect will await a Circuit Court hearing in the Detention Center.

July 13, 2009 An officer responded to a front beach business where three male juveniles had reportedly stolen merchandise. Two of the subjects left the area on their bicycles, but one fifteen year old was apprehended and charged with Shoplifting through Family Court and released to the custody of a parent.

July 13, 2009 Just before midnight officers responded to a residence on 30th Avenue, where a domestic disturbance had been reported. When the officers arrived they heard yelling from within the residence and made entry and observed a male bleeding from a laceration to the eye and a female involved in a heated verbal dispute. The parties were separated and by speaking to all subjects within the residence it was determined that the female subject struck her cohabitating boyfriend. She was taken into custody charged with Criminal Domestic Violence.

July 14, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on Chapman Avenue, where a domestic dispute had been reported. Upon their arrival they determined that a male and female, who were not married were having a loud verbal dispute. There was no indication that the dispute ever became physical. The female subject was given an escort to her residence in Mount Pleasant.

July 17, 2009 A female visitor to the beach reported that her beach bag containing car keys, cell phone, and wallet were stolen while she was in the water. She made contact with her husband to bring a set of spare car keys, when she observed an unknown male suspect driving her car away from where she had parked it. She and her husband followed the suspect several blocks honking the horn to draw attention to them. The suspect pulled over to the side of Palm Boulevard near 7th Avenue and exited the vehicle and attempted to get into a second vehicle driven by a female subject. The victim's husband scuffled briefly with the male car thief and the victim was able to reach into the suspect's vehicle and retrieve her stolen beach bag. A good description of both suspect's and a license plate number was provided. The case has been turned over to Investigators.

July 19, 2009 Officers responded to Ocean Boulevard where a couple was arguing. The female was in possession of the car keys and would not allow her intoxicated boyfriend to drive. When the driver exited the vehicle he needed to hold on to the truck for balance then after submitting to one Field Sobriety Test was not allowed to continue due to his size, being over 400 pounds fearing that he would fall and injure himself. July 23, 2009 Officers responded to a residence on 32nd Avenue for a medical assistance call, where a mother reported that her 17 year- old son would not wake up and was turning blue. Fire Department first responders performed CPR until EMS personnel arrived and transported the subject to a local hospital. The cause of the incident is under investigation.

July 24, 2009 Just before 2 A.M., an officer on patrol of the Connector stopped a vehicle for speeding and while speaking to the driver detected a strong odor of alcohol from within the vehicle.
